Situated in the heart of the medina, the beautiful family-run riad of Dar el Ghalia offers a sea of tranquillity amidst the hustle-bustle of the city.

All 12 rooms open out onto the huge central courtyard, which is exquisitely furnished with Moroccan artefacts. The food here is very highly rated, and meals are served in the rooftop restaurant, which affords a spectacular view of the city.

There are a variety of different room types, each named after ancestors of the family who still own and run it. Each room is en-suite, and other facilities include lounge areas, internet access, and traditional hammam.
