Sarova Mara Game Camp is located within the world famous Masai Mara National Reserve providing instant access to some of the best game viewing Africa has to offer. The area is renowned for its annual wildebeest migration whilst also being home to the Big Five. Sarova Mara is set on an elevation surrounded by two streams with beautifully maintained grounds. It is fenced in ensuring wildlife cannot approach the camp tents.

Sarova Mara Game Camp's 75 comfortably furnished and modern tents are spaciouly sited within the camps woodlands. The permanent tents are all equipped with an en suite shower room, electricity and mosquito nets. The camp's outdoor swimming pool and comfortable sun-loungers are ideal for relaxing in the sun after an early game drive.

The camp features a number of dining options including the Isokon restaurant which provides both al fresco and sheltered facilities. Diners can enjoy the evening breeze and the wild sounds of the African bush. Evening barbeques are often held by the pool, a facility which is also available to private parties. The Oloip bar features a grand fireplace perfect for a cosy evening relaxing with a drink. Maasai dancers show off their traditional welcoming dances during the evening. Interested guests can participate in Maasai cultural village visits and Maasai lectures, which explore the local culture in greater depth.

Sarova Mara Game Camp is one of the bases for balloon safaris in the Masai Mara providing guests with the experience of a lifetime - an early morning balloon safari and a champagne breakfast in the heart of the Masai Mara. The morning and evening game drives from the camp offer an opportunity to see the abundant wildlife when they are at their most active. Walking safaris are also available within the greater game park area. Guests can also enjoy the massage facilities available at the lodge.
