

Djuma Lodge

Highlights	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Location in Sabi Sand Private Game Reserve, adjacent to Kruger National Park.• Comfortable ensuite, air conditioned accommodation.• Daily game drives and guided bush walks in game-rich region.
Situation	Sabi Sand Game Reserve, Kruger National Park
Activities	Morning and evening game drives; guided walking trails; village and school visits

Djuma Lodge is located in the northern part of Sabi Sand Game Reserve, bordering Kruger National Park. Sabi Sand is one of the best known private reserves and offers excellent game viewing opportunities, including the Big 5.

There are 8 thatched chalets, all with ensuite bathroom, air conditioning and private terrace or deck. The lodge has a swimming pool, 2 viewing decks and a library. The main building also houses the lounge, bar and dining areas. Meals include a buffet breakfast, choice of lunch dishes, afternoon tea complete with freshly baked cakes and a 4-course dinner. Guests can enjoy morning and evening game drives and guided nature walks. The lodge also offers visits to a neighbouring village to introduce guests to local customs and traditions.

