The Foresters Arms offers a warm welcome and home comforts in the beautiful Swaziland highlands. Set in some 90 hectares of colourful gardens this is a peaceful setting in which to relax amongst the colourful flowers and exotic birdlife. There are 30 bedrooms all with ensuite bathroom, telephone, TV and great views over the gardens and countryside.

The country atmosphere is evident in the lounges, restaurant and pub, complete with log fires. Breakfast is served either in the dining room or on the sun terrace and guests can choose between homemade meusli, breads, pastries and a full English breakfast. Drinks, including the hotel's own spring water, and snacks are available during the day. Dine by candlelight enjoying delicious cuisine including fresh fruit and vegetables.

Nature lovers can explore the surrounding forests on foot or on horseback, fish for trout or bass in the stocked dams, picnic at a nearby waterfall or simply relax by the pool or in the library. For the golfer, the Usutu golf course adjoins the estate. A sauna, tennis, squash, bowls and table tennis are available, and tandem and mountain cycles may be hired to explore the numerous trails around the hotel.
