An exclusive safari lodge in traditional style in a private concession area inside Addo Elephant Park. The area is malaria free and home to the big 5. The Greater Addo area is constantly expanding and now stretches to the coast as well with eco-systems linked by game corridors. This is a fabulous region for all kinds of game viewing, horse riding, mountain biking, walking, bird watching and enjoying stunning scenery.

The luxury tented suites at Gorah are all furnished in the style of the explorers of the 1900s. They are all en-suite and have huge beds, private decks with views of the plains, solar powered lights, ceiling fans and communication with the main lodge.

The main house at Gorah has two lounges and dining areas and a library. Log fires warm you in the winter and in warmer months dining can be enjoyed outside too. There is a swimming pool and relaxing area. Horse riding can be arranged here.
