Xaluca Dades offers modern amenities and comfortable accommodation in a stunning setting in Morocco's High Atlas Mountains at the entrance to the dramatic Dades Gorge, with wonderful views of the Dades valley. Located in the small town of Boumalne Dades, the hotel has been recently renovated to a high standard. The 106 rooms have African-inspired decor and feature modern comforts like air conditioning, heating, ensuite bathroom, TV, internet access and minibar.

The extensive public areas of the hotel include a restaurant, a living room with an open fireplace, a cosy bar with comfy chairs and sofas and a separate games room. Outside guests can take a dip in the large swimming pool and relax on the sun terrace or the natural stone solarium. There is also a heated jacuzzi. For sports fans, the hotel also has a tennis court and a bowling green. For those wanting to be pampered, the hotel offers massage, a hammam and a sauna. There is also a gym.

The hotel is perfectly positioned for exploring the Atlas Mountains and local Berber villages. The dedicated tour desk can arrange various excursions and 4x4 vehicle hire for guests.
