Mercure Grand Hotel Alameda is a mid sized modern hotel in the commercial district of Quito. The 148 rooms are spacious and well equipped with air conditioning, minibar, safe, TV, radio, telephone and internet access. All have an ensuite bathroom. Some rooms also have a private balcony.

The restaurant, 'Spicy', is open for breakfast - a large and varied buffet. It is also open for lunch and dinner and serves a range of international cuisine complemented by a wide selection of wines. The main room is comfortable and air conditioned and there is also a terrace for al fresco dining. The 'Globe Walker Bar' offers a full range of soft and alcoholic drinks plus some snacks. Other facilities include a cosy library, fitness centre, laundry service and 24 hour room service.

The hotel is well located for visits to the historic areas and sites of the city such as Independence Square and San Francisco church and is also convenient for the international airport. There are a number of restaurants, bars and shops within walking distance of the hotel.
