Jacana Camp is situated in the Jao Concession on the border of the Moremi Game Reserve. It is located on an island and is a small, intimate camp with accommodation for just 10 guests. This is great area for year round game viewing.

There are just 5 Meru-style tents set on raised wooden decks to make the most of the marvellous views. Each has an ensuite bathroom with a shower open to the sky. The main dining area is on a raised wooden platform between 2 sycamore fig trees. Meals can also be taken outdoors in the boma by the camp fire. The cosy lounge is below the dining area and has a large viewing deck. There is a separate thatched relaxation area with hammocks, ideal for taking it easy between game viewing activities. The camp also has a plunge pool.

Mokoro rides are popular ways to explore the waterways of the delta and Jacana also offers boating trips. Game drives are available from September to May. Walking safaris are offered, but need to be booked prior to travel. There are 2 platform decks for guests to visit in the Jao Concession.

This is a great area for seeing sitatunga and red lechwe. Of the larger animals, guests can hope to see elephant, lion, leopard and buffalo. The birdlife near Jacana is plentiful. The volume of wildlife is dependant on water flow, so varies season to season.
