Sea Man II is a 90 foot motor catamaran, built in 2006, whose modern hull design and wide beam ensure stability. She offers spacious accommodation over 4 decks. There are 8 large 2-person cabins, 6 on the main deck with twin beds and 2 on the upper deck with double beds. All cabins are full air conditioned, have outside windows and private bathrooms with hot water.

Delicious buffet-style meals are served in the dining room. Passengers can relax in the lounge with its 'L' shaped sofa and watch TV or a DVD or listen to music. There is also a bar here. There is a selection of books in the library, which passengers are welcome to browse through at their leisure.

The upper deck has a large observation deck with an outdoor bar and a shaded terrace, while the sun deck is equipped with loungers for the sun lovers on board. Sea Man II has sea kayaks, surfboards and snorkelling equipment, free for guests to use.
