Galapagos Journey I is a fast, comfortable catamaran with accommodation for a maximum of 16 passengers in ensuite cabins and suites. Built in 2006, she is an elegant craft offering with spacious living areas and up-to-date facilities. The 6 standard cabins are located on the main deck and the 2 larger suites are on the upper deck. As well as private bathrooms, all have air conditioning and large picture windows.

The communal areas of the boat include a lounge, TV-DVD room with mini library, bar and dining room where most evening meals are served. The food is a mix of local and international dishes. In addition, buffets are served al fresco on deck. There is ample room for sitting outside, including sunloungers on the large sundeck. There is also an outdoor jacuzzi. Galapagos Journey I carries snorkelling gear and wetsuits that can be hired and also has sea kayaks for passengers' use.
